

[Insert Logos]

Seminar on Strategic Thought in Korea

Co-hosted by:

*Princeton University, East Asia Studies Program,
Princeton Institute of International and Regional Studies,
Korea Economic Institute,
&
Korea University, Iimin International Relations Institute*

January 14, 2005

Princeton University
Frist Campus Center, Room 309

- 10:30 – 10:45 Introduction to the Strategic Thought in Korea and the Strategic Thought In Asia Project
Gilbert Rozman, Princeton University
- 10:45 – 12:30 Evolution of South Korean Strategic Thought Since The Cold War
Chair: Shin-wha Lee, Korea University
Speakers: James J. Przystup, National Defense University
Larry Niksch, Congressional Research Service
William M. Drennan, Intellibridge Corporation
- 12:30 – 1:30 Buffet Lunch
- 1:30 – 3:30 South Korea's Strategic Thinking Towards Its Neighbors in Asia
Chair: Gilbert Rozman, Princeton University
Speakers: Kongdan Oh, Institute for Defense Analysis
Scott Snyder, Asia Foundation
Tae-Hyo Kim, Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security
- 3:30 – 3:45 Coffee Break
- 3:45 – 5:30 Strategic Thought, the Nuclear Crisis, and Inter-Korean Relations
Chair: In-taek Hyun, Korea University
Speakers: Desaix Anderson, formerly of KEDO
Balbina Hwang, Heritage Foundation
Kyu Duk Hong, Sookmyung Women's University

5:30 – 5:50      Wrap-Up Discussion: How to Study Korean Strategic Thought

6:00 – 7:45      Dinner at Prospect Faculty Club